DETAILED ITINERARY

DAY 1 Lima

Upon arrival you'll be met at the airport by a Knowmad Adventures representative and taken to your accommodations centrally located in the Miraflores neighborhood. Relax and rest up or begin exploring the city on your own (depending on your arrival time, we are also happy to arrange a guided tour on this day*)

- No meals - Casa Andina Private Collection

DAY 2 Lima

After breakfast you will begin discovering the city that was once the conquistador's capital. With your guide, visit the Plaza de Armas, the colonial cathedral and Plaza San Francisco, the Torre Tagle Palace and more of the city's most interesting sights.

From there, head to a traditional market to learn more about Peruvian products and gastronomy. Try your hand at shopping the Peruvian way purchasing ingredients that you use alongside a local hand learning how to prepare a couple of the typical Peruvian dishes that are quickly gaining international acclaim. Continue seeing more of the city in the afternoon before returning to your hotel for a relaxing evening.

DAY 3 Lima – Arequipa – Colca Canyon

After being transferred to the airport you'll fly to Arequipa. Known as the white city for its many buildings built with a stone called sillar, this charming city nestled amongst the Andes and volcanoes enchants visitors with its colonial architecture, charming central square, and friendly people. Visit the intriguing Jesuit complex of La Compania and the Convent of Santa Catalina, famous for its labyrinth of secluded quarters. Afterwards enjoy a delicious Arequipeno lunch (amongst Peru's diverse cuisine, many feel Arequipa is king).

Leaving the city behind in private van, your Peru tour ascends to the highland savannah, or puna, for an amazing view of El Misti and more distant snowcapped volcanoes. On this high-altitude desert, you see herds of llamas, alpacas and the endangered vicuña. Descend into the upper Colca Canyon, known to be the deepest in the world, at Chivay and enjoy the evening soaking in the hot springs at your accommodations in the Colca Lodge.

- B, L – Colca Lodge

DAY 4 Colca Canyon

Rise early and head out to the Cruz del Condor viewpoint over the deepest part of this famed canyon to spot Andean condors emerging from their nests to ride the thermal currents as the sun hits the canyon. This amazing site is a traveler highlight.

After lunch visit Canocota, a small community on the Colca River. Here you take a leisurely walk into the gorge with impressive views along the way. If you'd like, choose to continue hiking about three hours and arrive to the remote natural hot springs at La Calera and take a dip. Meet the van afterwards and return to the lodge for the evening.

- B, L – Colca Lodge

DAY 5 Colca Canyon to Lake Titicaca

Saying goodbye to the dramatic canyon you will head by private van through the Colca Valley and onwards to the altiplano or high savannah. Along with dramatic landscapes filled with vicunas and alpaca, you pass traditional highland villages typical of the region. Along the way you also visit colonial Lampa, as well as Sillustani to see the chullpas, or burial towers, above Lake Umayo. The Colla people, a warrior tribe that spoke Aymara, buried their elite in these giant cylindrical tombs, some up to 40-ft tall. Many archeologists consider this complex stonemasonry superior even to Inca engineering. Arrive in the late afternoon to your hotel set beside the world's highest navigable lake.

DAY 6 Lake Titicaca – Taquile and Uros floating islands

Today you head out by boat for a full day exploring Lake Titicaca and the unique altiplano cultures that have called it home for centuries. Your first stop is the Uros Islands, which are actually totora reed vegetation piled atop itself forming the islands which float amongst the lake and support small bands of Uros people. It is believed that they have lived on the islands for centuries after fleeing the stronger Aymara civilization. The lives of the Uros people are interwoven with these reeds, which are partially edible and are also used to make their homes, boats, and crafts.

From here continue on to Taquile Island where Quechua people retain a strong cultural identity and rarely intermarry outside of the island. Visit our friend Alejandro for a typical meal of delicious products harvested locally and to learn of the islands lifestyle and traditions.

After lunch enjoy walking throughout the traditional island amongst this massive lake of vivid blue. Titicaca sits in stark contrast to the surrounding altiplano and separates Peru and Bolivia, making it as remarkable visually as culturally. The lake is also considered to be the birthplace of the Inca. Return by boat to take in the sunset from your lakeside hotel.

DAY 7 Puno to Cusco

Leaving Puno in a tourist-shared bus* you will travel northwest past the town of Juliaca and Ayaviri, climbing the pass to expansive views of the seemingly limitless horizon from an elevation of more than 14,000 ft (4,750 meters). Descend into the Vilcanota Valley for lunch after exploring the pre-Inca site of Raqchi. After an approximately 5-hour drive, arrive to Cusco where you will be met and taken to your hotel set in a renovated colonial mansion around an elegant courtyard.

* Flights from Puno to Cusco may be arranged at an extra cost according to your preference.

- B, L – Aranwa

DAY 8 Cusco

Enjoy the day at your leisure exploring independently, or accompanied by your guide, a city where traditional Andean cultures, the colonial Spanish, and modern Peru come together in one of South America's most culturally and visually dynamic cities. Visit Incan architectural jewels such as Korikancha – the temple of the sun; shop at Andean markets; enjoy savory, wide-ranging Peruvian cuisine; and see the colonial cathedrals built atop Incan foundations around the Plaza Central.

- B – Aranwa

DAY 9 Sacred Valley

After breakfast you'll head by van along the Sacred Valley past the communities of Calca, Coya, Lamay and Pisac. From here you go completely off the map winding up a small dirt road, which takes you through remote Andean villages and arrives to the Amaru community. This isolated community holds strongly to their ancient customs, and practices a largely subsistence lifestyle on the slopes of the Andes. The Amaru will proudly open their village to you where you will learn of their lifestyle and traditions. Among other things, take part in gathering plants used as natural dyes, learn of their medicinal and culinary properties, and see how the Amaru's world-renowned textiles are woven and brought to life.

Stay for lunch with community leaders or enjoy a picnic amongst the Pisac ruins that sprawl down the mountainside towards town. If still energized, you can enjoy a gentle hike through the extensive Inca terracing down the mountainside, or hop in the van, and arrive to Pisac – one of Peru's largest and most vibrant markets – where you can bargain with Andean campesinos for handcrafted wares. Continue to Sol y Luna, an oasis nestled in this amazing Andean valley, for a relaxing evening.

- B, L – Sol y Luna

DAY 10 Ollantaytambo to Machu Picchu Pueblo

Take a leisurely morning to enjoy the grounds at Sol y Luna before continuing through the valley to Ollantaytambo where you visit a spectacular complex of Incan ruins towering above town. After a delicious lunch at El Albergue restaurant (the grilled alpaca tenderloin is phenomenal!), board the train that chugs along the Urubamba River and parts of the Inca Trail towards the Amazon arriving at Machu Picchu Pueblo. Check in to lush Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel set amongst gardens, semi-natural pools, jungle trails, and droves of hummingbirds. This CondeNast recognized hotel is a Knowmad favorite.

- B, L – El Mapi

DAY 11 Machu Picchu

Early risers can revel at the sunrise from the Machu Picchu citadel. This incredibly vast archaeological site - lost to the world until well into the twentieth century – is perched amidst Andean peaks and lush cloud forest making it one of the most breathtaking sights in the world. You'll have the opportunity to get a complete guided tour as you begin to unlock the mystery of the Inca, and also have plenty of time to wander the site on your own. Lunch at the Sanctuary Lodge adjacent to the ruins means you'll be able to enjoy the whole day without leaving awe-inspiring Machu Picchu. You can also climb the adjacent sacred peak Huayna Picchu for a bird's eye view.

- B, L – El Mapi

DAY 12 Machu Picchu to Cusco

Take the early train back to Cusco after breakfast to catch your afternoon flight back to Lima and your evening international flight home.

SUMMARY

Panoramic Peru is a more in-depth look at this dynamic country. An extensive loop from Lima to Arequipa and the Colca Canyon, onwards to Lake Titicaca, Cusco, the Sacred Valley and Machu Picchu, this trip explores the best of Peru and has it all.

AIR TRAVEL

INTERNATIONAL

Airfare is not included in the land cost of our trips. You may arrange your international airfare independently, or we are happy to offer our feedback and assistance in helping you book it.

REGIONAL

If booked by Knowmad Adventures, internal airfare for this trip (Lima/Arequipa & Cusco/Lima) averages $440, however this is an approximation and the airfare is subject to change upon booking. If you would like to arrange your own regional flights, please consult us prior so we can verify the departure and arrival times.

WEATHER & WHEN TO GO

This trip takes place mostly in the Peruvian highlands. Throughout the year the average temperature is in the mid-50s °F (10-12 °C) and does not fluctuate greatly. Evenings are cooler. There are primarily two seasons: wet and dry. December through March sees much more precipitation than other times of the year and is the less visited season. As Peru has three distinct climate zones, if you are interested in combining this trip with a visit to the jungle or the coastal areas please inquire for more weather details.

MONTH	AVG. TEMP. & RAINFALL	MONTH	AVG. TEMP. & RAINFALL

Prior to your departure, we provide you with a detailed pre-trip information packet, which includes a recommended pack list, information about the regions you'll be visiting, suggested readings, and up-to-date health information including any recommended vaccinations.

EXTEND YOUR ADVENTURE

AMAZON JUNGLE

Just a short flight from Cusco, spotting troops of monkeys, colorful macaws and countless bird species, giant sloths, caimans, and maybe even a jaguar or puma in the Amazon Jungle is a traveler favorite. We have scoured the jungle lodges of Peru and can advise you on which experience fits you best while guaranteeing the best value.

IS IT FOR ME?

A physically relaxed trip that avoids strenuous activity, this itinerary is ideal for small-groups of any age that have a bit more time and want to do it all. Knowmad has vast knowledge and operating capacities in Peru: this is a private trip and we are happy to modify excursions, accommodations, and the flow of the itinerary to perfectly suit your travel style and interests.
